

Secondary History Teacher Internship

SUMMARY: Suitable candidates should have previous experience and a thorough knowledge of international history. They should have an international outlook and show enthusiasm for history as well as the ability to inspire the same enthusiasm in high school students. The duties will include creating interesting, motivating and differentiated lesson plans for students struggling with AP American History and AP World History, as well as serve the community by responding to research questions, and supporting the library staff.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

PLANS CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

- Draws on content standards of the relevant curriculum frameworks to plan sequential units of study, individual lessons, and learning activities that make learning cumulative and advance students' level of content knowledge
- Draws on results of formal and informal assessments as well as knowledge of human development to identify teaching strategies and learning activities appropriate to the specific discipline, age, level of English language proficiency, and range of cognitive levels being taught
- Plans lessons with clear objectives and relevant measurable outcomes
- Draws on resources from the community to enhance learning
- Incorporates appropriate technology and media in lesson planning

DELIVERS EFFECTIVE INSTRUCTION

- Makes learning objectives clear to students
- Communicates clearly in writing and speaking
- Uses engaging ways to begin a new unit of study or lesson
- Builds on students' prior knowledge and experience

PROVIDES REFERENCE ASSISTANCE

- Communicates clearly with public to answer their questions
- Prepares lists of materials that would be useful to the community and library collection
- Supports the Library Reference Staff by providing coverage at Reference Desk and assisting public

REQUIREMENTS

- Junior, senior or graduate status, pursuing a Secondary Education degree (grades 6 - 12) with an interest or minor in History
- 15+ hours of availability per week
- This is an unpaid internship that may be taken for college credit, check with your school's academic advisor