Richard Rand, Chief of Police at the City of North Miami Beach Police Department, Resigns to Retire after 25 Years of Law Enforcement Service

North Miami Beach, FL – March 3, 2022 – Richard Rand, Chief of Police at the City of North Miami Beach Police Department, has resigned after dedicating 25 years of law enforcement service to the citizens of North Miami Beach. Chief Rand’s resignation will become effective on July 5, 2022.

“Thank you, Chief Rand, for your incredible 25 years of service to our North Miami Beach community. Your strong work ethic has greatly impacted the success and growth of our NMB Police Department. I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. You will always be an important part of our City’s history” stated City Manager Arthur H. Sorey, III.

Chief Rand will be retiring and enjoying the next chapter in his life. Over the last five consecutive years, Chief Rand and his command staff have been able to lower crime and have created safer neighborhoods. The North Miami Beach Police Department has also achieved “Excelsior” status for the third straight year from the Commission of Florida Accreditation. Since Rand’s promotion to Chief, the City has become a safer place to work, play, and live.

Chief Rand was raised in the City of North Miami Beach until the age of 17. He is grateful to Mayor Anthony DeFillipo and the City Commissioners for entrusting him with protecting and serving his hometown. To schedule an interview with City Manager Arthur H. Sorey, III, please email a request to Susset Cabrera at susset.cabrera@cityymb.com.
